- I, Bernice Anderson, will my ability to get along with people to Carl Hague.

The Senior Class as a whole, wills their quiet nature and studious ways to the Seniors of '56.

Senior

P o e m

In '51 when we first came
Success was our most wanted aim,
We knew there'd be trouble
We knew there's be strife
But we were all ready
To accept high school life.

Larry's our editor, as you can see
Of the P. C. Hi-Lites, and Tri-County
His learning ability is plain to see
And it's really a sin to get a "B".

Larry Kacmpf

A mighty man is our Jim L.
A leader of basketball and baseball as well
He reigned as our Prom King in '54
His friendly smile we all adore.

Jim Larson

LaVonne is quiet and studious too
A catch for some boy, you guess who
We're all sure that with her winsome ways
She will be happy the rest of her days.

*LaVonne
Haglund*

A credit to our class is Arlene C.
Also our Homecoming queen was she.
With all her abilities, it's hard to tell,
In just what subject, she will excel.

*Arlene
Chilson*

Adela C. is a talkative girl,
Whenever you see her, she's in a whirl.
Her ideas are as bright as her red hair
And with a Junior boy, they make quite a pair.

Adela Collett

Jerry's car is never running,
But to fix it, he's quite cunning.
Happy-go-lucky, intelligent too--
Success is the motto he carries through.

Jerry Helmuelter

Lester Annen, quiet is he,
His wavy hair is something to see.
To sleep in class is his greatest delight
And going to Pepin, he thinks it's all right.

*Lester
Annen*

Bernard's always one minute late,
Is it because of last night's date?
All kidding aside, really swell is he,
Satisfaction from life is sure his to be.

*Bernard
Hoi*

Jim Drier, some say that he's quiet,
But give him a chance, and he'll make a riot.
Though we think he's a handsome blonde;
It's the Arkansaw girls of whom he is fond.

Jim Drier

Kenny Kannel, a critic is he
He never does anything wrong you see.
One thing we're sure of more and more
Good things for him will be in store.

Kenny Kannel

Bonnie Kane, with her complexion fair
We've named her Smily, and she doesn't care
She's friendly, efficient, a pal to us all
She's neither too short nor is she too tall.

Bonnie Kane

A guy with a crew-cut, that's John K.
We know he'll soon be on his way
In the Navy he will be,
On the land and on the sea.

John King

The blondest gal in the whole class
Is a small and blue-eyed lass.
Marlene is good in chorus and glee
A good cheerleader too, by gee.

Marlene Kannel

Vaughn Martin, our chemistry whiz
He likes to mix things and see them fizz.
His height is an asset, we'll agree,
In engineering he'll get a degree.

Vaughn Martin

Ronnie's the guy who finds things to do
At school in the daytime and other times too.
He's pleasant and cheerful, happy as can be
A well-liked lad, we all agree.

Ronnie Helmueller

Black, wavy hair and an innocent look
You'll never find Cappy with his nose in a book.
He teases the kids but in fun just the same
He'll make good to be sure, whatever his aim.

Cappy Bechel

Vera's a girl with spunk galore
Her clever ways and wit we adore.
As a pitcher in softball, she excelled the rest.
As a friend we can say she is one of the best.

Vera Hiller

A helpful miss is Mary Louise
Trying hard her class to please.
The biggest go-getter in the class,
She sure is a real swell lass.

Mary Lou Pittman

Bernice's not quiet, not really at all
As for studies, she's really on the ball.
To be a beautician, her goal she has set.
A success she will be, at that you can bet.

Bernice Anderson

Shirley Johnson, carefree and gay
Has an interest out Maiden Rock way.
With her high typing speed,
We wonder how she can help but succeed.

Shirley Johnson

Tall and slender, that's Betty A.
We're sure she'll be a success someday.
To be a receptionist is her desire
Of this job, she will not tire.

Betty Anderson

Here's a girl with dark black hair
She's always ready to take a dare.
Full of mischief and lots of fun
Leona Nelson is the one.

Leona Nelson

Darlene's fond of an Irishman,
She says they're really lots of fun.
Her unfailing help and cheerfulness
Should be the stepping stones to success.

Darlene Fisher

Arlene K. has the "knack" of drawing everything
Her sewing and fancy work many prizes do bring.
She doesn't wear glasses just to make her look beauteous;
She wears them to make teacher think she's studious.

Arlene Kannel

Bonnie's the one who teases us all,
But she can be serious when playing softball.
Whenever she smiles, her cute dimples show
Her ambitions are alone for her to know.

Bonnie Anderson

Junior's the guy, who causes a riot.
You never see him, when he's quiet.
He's a whiz on the basketball court
And he's really quite a good sport.

Junior Martin

The Seniors of '56 we wish to you
All the luck that to you is due.
May your ways be happy, your skies always blue
And through your life success be for you.

Class History

As the doors of Plum City High School opened in August of '51, twenty six eager freshmen made their way up the stairs for the first time. Days rolled by and we were initiated September 27th.

In our Sophomore year we lost Dennis Hase and Sandra Peterson, But Dick Brunker, Beatrice Anderson, and Bernice Anderson enrolled in our class making it a total of 27. Our Sophomore card party was a huge success.

When we were Juniors we gained John King and lost Helen Kulow and Dick Brunker, again making our original total of 26. With our Junior year came many happy memories. First of all our class rings. Then our class play, "A Feudin' Over Yonder". Last but not least, our long-awaited prom, with Blue Moon as our theme. Jim Larson and Marlene Kannel reigned as king and queen.

Our Senior year, and again 26 students enter the doors of Plum City High, because Jim Drier transferred from Arkansaw and Beatrice Anderson transferred to Hopkins. It seemed this year, our last year was the busiest of all. First of all we all went on a train to St. Paul and had our graduation pictures taken. Then our victorious Homecoming with Jerry Helmueller as king and Arlene Chilson as queen. Our Senior class play and then the eventful night of our high school life--Graduation--May 19th!
